

Rebelution Release "Bright Side of Life"

August 5, 2009, at 12:56 am

Rebelution have finally released their sophomore album after their debut album back in 2007. Rebelution has been hard at work touring all over the land and spreading the social vibez. Hailing from Santa Barbara, it isn't quite San Diego, nonetheless they can pull a crowd in San Diego as I can testify. Have a taste here, then go buy the album. Support local music...
